My dear President,

When it was reported to Carlyle that Margaret Fuller 'accepted the universe', 'Gad', he said, 'she'd better'.

Professor Sheldon of Illinois expressed the desire that I should receive the status of professor. Among many other things of the same kind, he said that I had started a new era in Latin in University College, & that, owing to my work, he was able to rest on his oars. I had accordingly looked for more rapid promotion when chance of such promotion should come.

Yours very sincerely,

David Duff.

Dear Mr. Duff:

I have asked Principal Hutton to speak to you with regard to the matter of your letter. As I understand the situation when Professor Fletcher asked you to join the staff some years ago it was to hold the position of lecturer with the ordinary increases. We hope that these will be maintained as usual and that this next year your salary will run to $1800.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
